

HOUSE . . . . . No. 683

By Mr. Tobin of Quincy, petition of A. Stephen Tobin and Colleen M. Garry relative to establishing new sentencing guidelines. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Five.

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH SENTENCING GUIDELINES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The General Laws are hereby amended by 2 inserting after chapter 211F the following chapter:—

CHAPTER 211G.
SENTENCING GUIDELINES.

5     Section 1. Definitions. The following terms as used in this 6 chapter shall have the following meanings:

7     “Adjudication of delinquency,” a determination or finding pur-
8 suant to section 58 of chapter 119 that a juvenile is a delinquent 9 child

10 "Conviction," a finding or verdict of guilt for a criminal offense 11 or an adjudication as a youthful offender pursuant to section 58 of 12 chapter 119

“Criminal history group,” the classification of an offender’s previous record of criminal convictions or adjudications of delinquency as set forth on the horizontal axis of the sentencing guidelines grid.

17 "Departure from the guidelines," a sentence imposed outside 18 the sentencing range contained in the applicable grid cell for the 19 particular offense.

“Governing offense,” the offense having the highest offense seriousness level among multiple offenses arising out of the same criminal conduct.

23     “Grid cell,” the intersection on the sentencing guidelines grid 24 between the offense seriousness level and the criminal history 25 group.

26     “Intermediate sanction,” a non-incarcerative sentence, or por-27 tion thereof, which includes a level of restriction, such as standard 28 probation, intensive supervision probation, community service, 29 home confinement, and day reporting, and which may be coupled 30 with components, such as residential programming, substance 31 abuse treatment, restitution, continuing education, vocational 32 training, special education, and psychological counseling.

33     “Mandatory minimum sentence,” the provision of a criminal 34 penalty for a particular offense which specifies the minimum term 35 of incarceration and prohibits suspension of any sentence, place-
36 ment on file, continuance without a finding, probation, and release 37 on parole until the minimum term of imprisonment has been 38 served.

39     “Master crime list,” the list in which offenses in Massachusetts 40 currently punishable by a term of imprisonment are ranked for 41 purposes of the sentencing guidelines.

42     “Offense seriousness levels,” the categories for ranking crim-
43 inal offenses as set forth in the master crime list and on the ver-44 tical axis of the sentencing guidelines grid.

45     “Post-incarceration supervision,” a period of parole supervision 46 to commence upon a prisoner’s release from a sentence of impris-
47 onment where the prisoner has served the full sentence within a 48 correctional facility.

49     “Same criminal conduct,” any two or more offenses committed 50 during a single criminal incident.

51     “Sentencing Commission,” the Massachusetts Sentencing Com-
52 mission as defined in section 1 of chapter 211E.

53     “Sentencing event,” an appearance before a court of competent 54 jurisdiction during which sentence is imposed for one or more 55 convictions or adjudications of delinquency.

56     “Sentencing guidelines,” all provisions set forth in this chapter 57 which direct or guide judges in sentencing.

58     “Sentencing guidelines grid,” the sentencing matrix, with 59 offenses classified on a vertical axis and criminal history groups 60 classified on a horizontal axis, and which contains a sentencing 61 guidelines range within each grid cell.

62     “Sentencing guidelines range,” the range of any sentence, 63 including the range of intermediate sanctions, which may be 64 imposed in each grid cell without constituting a departure from 65 the sentencing guidelines.

66     “Split sentence,” a sentence to a house of correction which is 67 suspended in part and includes a specified period of incarceration
68 followed by a specified period of probation or intermediate sanc-69 tion or both.

70     “Staircased offense,” a criminal offense which is ranked in 71 more than one offense seriousness level on the basis of the exis-72 tence of a specified factor.

73     “Statutory minimum sentence,” the provision of a criminal 74 penalty for a particular offense which does not require the imposi-
75 tion of incarceration, but specifies the minimum term of incarcera-76 tion, when incarceration is imposed.

77     Section 2. Sentencing Guidelines Grid. There are established, 78 consistent with the provisions of section 3 of chapter 211E, sen-79 tencing guidelines in the form of a sentencing guidelines grid with 80 offenses classified on the vertical axis according to seriousness 81 and criminal history classified on the horizontal axis according to 82 severity. Within each grid cell there is a sentencing guidelines 83 range, consistent with the provisions of section 3(a)(3)(C) of 84 chapter 211E. The sentencing guidelines grid includes three sen-85 tencing guidelines zones:— (1) an incarceration zone, where only 86 a sentence to incarceration is within the sentencing guidelines
87 range and a sentence to an intermediate sanction constitutes a 88 departure from the sentencing guidelines; (2) a discretionary zone, 89 where either a sentence to incarceration or a sentence to an inter-90 mediate sanction are within the sentencing guidelines range; and, 91 (3) an intermediate sanction zone, where only a sentence to an 92 intermediate sanction is within the sentencing guidelines range 93 and a sentence to incarceration constitutes a departure from the 94 sentencing guidelines. The following sentencing guidelines grid 95 shall be used as a basis for sentencing for convictions of all 96 applicable offenses for which incarceration is a possible sanction
97 under existing statutes, except for those offenses with mandatory 98 minimum sentences listed in sections 8(a), (b) and (d) of this 99 chapter.

100     Section 3. Master Crime List. Offenses which permit incarceration 101    are ranked according to offense seriousness level. Murder, as 102    defined in section 1 of chapter 265, is placed at the highest level 103    of the sentencing guidelines grid and for this offense the sen-
104    tencing provisions of section 2 of chapter 265 apply. The offense 105    seriousness rankings are set forth in the following master crime 106    list, which contains the following information:—

107     (a) “Grid.” A “YES” in this column denotes application of the 108    sentencing guidelines grid. A “NO” in this column indicates the 109    sentencing guideline grid is not applicable, and an alternate 110    penalty provision as provided for in this chapter is applicable.

111     (b) “Offense seriousness level.” All offenses on the master 112    crime list are ranked according to seriousness. For offenses to 113    which the sentencing guidelines grid applies, the offense serious-114    ness level of the governing offense determines the placement of 115    the offender on the vertical axis.

116     For all offenses, the offense seriousness level also represents 117    the level to which a prior conviction is to be assigned for purposes 118    of determining the criminal history group.

119     (c) “Notes.” The following notes apply to certain offenses con-120    tained in the master crime list:

121     (1) “Note A” refers to offenses where the sentencing guidelines 122    range exceeds the statutory maximum sentence in certain grid 123    cells. In such circumstances, the sentencing guidelines range 124    applies, except that no sentence imposed may exceed the statutory 125    maximum sentence, as provided in section 9 of this chapter.

126     (2) “Note B” refers to offenses where the statutory minimum 127    sentence exceeds the sentencing guidelines range in certain grid 128    cells. In such circumstances, it is not a departure from the sen-129    tencing guidelines for a judge to impose a sentence within the sen-130    tencing guidelines range, nor is it a departure from the sentencing 131    guidelines for a judge to impose the statutory minimum sentence, 132    as provided in section 8(e) of this chapter.

133     (3) “Note C” refers to offenses with mandatory minimum sen-134    tences in violation of chapter 94C. The sentencing guidelines for 135    these offenses are set forth in section 8(c) of this chapter.

136     (4) “Note D” refers to certain firearms offenses and certain 137    offenses pertaining to operating a motor vehicle or boat under the 138    influence which may have mandatory minimum sentences.

139     The sentencing guidelines for these offenses are set forth in 140 section 8(a) and (b) of this chapter.

141     (5) “Note E” refers to certain other offenses which have manda-142 tory minimum sentences. The sentencing guidelines for these 143 offenses are set forth in section 8(d) of this chapter.

144     (6) “Note F” refers to certain offenses for which a sentence to 145 an intermediate sanction constitutes a departure from the sen-146 tencing guidelines.

147     (7) “Note G” refers to staircased offenses. The staircase factors 148 are described in section 4(a) of this chapter.

149     (8) “Note H” refers to offenses for which the criminal history 150 group of the defendant is enhanced as described in section 4(b) of 151 this chapter.

152     (9) “Note I” refers to offenses for which the level is contingent 153 on the level assigned to the underlying substantive offense and is 154 the same as the level assigned to the underlying substantive 155 offense, except that no sentence may exceed the statutory max-156 imum sentence, as provided in section 9 of this chapter.

157     (10) “Note J” refers to offenses for which the level is contin-158 gent on the level assigned to the underlying substantive offense 159 and is one level lower than the level assigned to the underlying 160 substantive offense, except that no sentence may exceed the statu-161 tory maximum sentence, as provided in section 9 of this chapter.

162     (d) “Offense Reference” — the Massachusetts General Law ref-163 erence for a particular offense.

164     (e) “Offense Penalty Reference” — the Massachusetts General
165 Law reference for a particular offense penalty provision when dif-166 ferent from the offense reference.

167     (f) “Staircase Factor” — a specified factor, beyond the required 168 elements for an offense, which determines the offense seriousness 169 level.

170     (g) The master crime list also incorporates information existing 171 elsewhere in the General Laws. Any discrepancies between the 172 following items of information reproduced in the master crime list 173 and as they appear in the Massachusetts General Laws are to be 174 resolved in favor of those provisions of the Massachusetts General 175 Laws which set forth the penalties for the particular offense.

176     (1) “Offense” — an abbreviated offense description;

177     (2) “Penalty Type” — felony or misdemeanor;

178 (3) “Mandatory Time” — the mandatory minimum sentence, 179 where applicable;

180 (4) “Min H/C” — the statutory minimum sentence to the house
181 of correction, where applicable;

182 (5) “Max H/C” — the statutory maximum sentence to the house
183 of correction, where applicable;

184 (6) “Min Prison” — the statutory minimum sentence to the 185 state prison, where applicable; and,

186 (7) “Max Prison” — the statutory maximum sentence to the 187 state prison where applicable.

188 Where an offense is not found in the master crime list, the 189 judge shall impose an appropriate sentence, having due regard for 190 the purposes of sentencing set forth in section 2 of chapter 211E.

191 The master crime list follows:

192     Section 4. (a) Staircasing certain offenses. Certain offenses, 193     broadly defined to encompass a wide range of behavior, are placed 194     at more than one offense seriousness level in the master crime list.
195     These offenses are identified by a stircased notation on the 196     master crime list based on the following considerations:—

197       (1) Manslaughter in violation of section 13 of chapter 265 is a 198     level eight offense where it is voluntary manslaughter and a level 199     six offense where it is involuntary manslaughter.

200       (2) Assault and battery by means of a dangerous weapon in vio-201     lation of section 15A of chapter 265 is ranked according to the 202     degree of injury to the victim as follows:—

203       Assault and battery by means of a dangerous weapon is a level six 204     offense where there is significant injury to the victim. Significant 205     injury includes: injuries which are characterized by a protracted 206     period of total disability or long term impairment of function, loss of 207     function of any body members, organ, or mental faculty; injuries, 208     not necessarily permanently disabling, which require long term med-209     ical care or rehabilitative therapy; injuries which involve a gross dis-210     figurement; and, injuries which result in a permanent residual 211     disability or loss of function to a significant degree.

212       Assault and battery by means of a dangerous weapon is a level
213     four offense where there is moderate injury to the victim. Moderate 214     injury includes: injuries which involve extreme physical pain and 215     some discernible disability or loss of function of some body 216     member, organ, or mental faculty, such as fractures, internal injuries 217     or wounds which are serious but not life threatening; and, psycho-218     logical trauma that results in some temporary or partial disability.

219       Assault and battery by means of a dangerous weapon is a level 220     three offense where there is no injury or minor injury to the 221     victim. Minor injury includes: injuries which require some emer-222     gency treatment, such as lacerations, contusions, or abrasions, 223     which have no residual effect; concussions without lasting neuro-224     logical impact; physical injuries that are painful and obvious but 225     not in any way disabling; and, minimal, psychological trauma 226     without lasting effect.

227       (3) Armed robbery in violation of section 17 of chapter 265 is a 228     level seven offense where there is a display of a gun. Any other 229     violation of section 17 of chapter 265 is a level six offense with 230     the exception of certain violations of section 17 of chapter 265 231     that are subject to the provisions of section 4 (b) of this chapter.

232     (4) Breaking and entering in violation of sections 16 through 18 233 of chapter 266 is a level five offense where the breaking and 234 entering involves a dwelling and the offender is armed. Breaking 235 and entering is a level four offense where the crime involves a 236 dwelling and the offender is not armed, or where the crime does 237 not involve a dwelling and the offender is armed. Breaking and 238 entering is a level three offense where the crime does not involve 239 a dwelling and the offender is not armed. Misdemeanor breaking 240 and entering, chapter 266 section 16A, is a level two offense.

241     (5) Certain property offenses are ranked according to the value 242 of property lost or destroyed as follows:—

243     Where the value of the property lost or destroyed is $50,000 or 244 over, the offense is a level five offense.

245     Where the value of the property lost or destroyed is between 246 $10,000 and $50,000, the offense is a level four offense.

247     Where the value of the property lost or destroyed is $10,000 or 248 under, the offense is a level three offense.

249     In determining the appropriate offense seriousness level for a 250 staircased offense, the judge may consider any evidence received 251 during the proceedings; any victim impact statement; any presen-
252 tence report, when the judge requests one; and, any other informa-253 tion that the judge deems credible.

254     (b) Second and subsequent convictions. When a statute provides 255 for a more severe penalty upon a second and subsequent conviction
256 for an offense, the second or subsequent offense is elevated one level 257 on the offense seriousness scale on the master crime list. Where the 258 offense is at level eight, the offender shall be moved over one cell to 259 the right to the next more serious criminal history group in the grid.
260 When a defendant is charged as a second or subsequent offender 261 under the relevant statute, the prior conviction or convictions that 262 served as the basis for the second or subsequent charge shall not be 263 counted in determining criminal history placement on the grid.
264 Offenses that are subject to a more severe penalty for second and 265 subsequent conviction are so designated in the master crime list.

266     Section 5. Criminal History Groups. There are five criminal 267 history groups on the horizontal axis of the sentencing guidelines 268 grid as follows:—

269     (a) Criminal History Group A, No/Minor Record, refers to a 270 criminal record that contains no prior convictions of any kind; or,

271 one to three prior convictions in any combination for offenses in 272 levels one or two.

273 (b) Criminal History Group B, Moderate Record, refers to a 274 criminal record that contains four or more prior convictions in any 275 combination for offenses in levels one or two; or, one or two prior 276 convictions in any combination for offenses in levels three or four.

277 (c) Criminal History Group C, Serious Record, refers to a crim-278 inal record that contains three to five prior convictions in any 279 combination for offenses in levels three or four; or, one prior con-280 viction for offenses in levels five or six.

281 (d) Criminal History Group D, Violent or Repetitive Record,
282 refers to a criminal record that contains six to eight prior convic-283 tions in any combination for offenses in levels three or four; or, 284 two to four prior convictions in any combination for offenses in 285 levels five or six; or, one prior conviction for offenses in levels 286 seven through nine.

287 (e) Criminal History Group E, Serious Violent or Serious 288 Repetitive Record, refers to a criminal record that contains nine or 289 more prior convictions for offenses in levels three or four; or, five 290 or more prior convictions for offenses in levels five or six; or, two 291 or more prior convictions in any combination for offenses in 292 levels seven through nine.

293 Section 6. Determining Criminal History. In determining place-294 ment in the appropriate criminal history group on the sentencing 295 guidelines grid, the following provisions shall apply:—

296 (a) Conviction-based criminal history. Only those prior offenses 297 which resulted in a conviction shall be counted for criminal his-298 tory placement on the sentencing guidelines grid. All convictions 299 that occurred prior to the present sentencing event shall be 300 counted for criminal history placement on the sentencing guide-
301 lines grid. The offense seriousness level of each prior conviction 302 shall be determined by reference to the version of the master
303 crime list in effect at the time of the sentencing event for the pre-304 sent offense.

305 (b) Incident-based criminal history. Multiple prior convictions 306 arising from the same criminal conduct shall be counted as one 307 prior conviction, based on the most serious offense. There shall be 308 a rebuttable presumption that multiple prior convictions that have 309 the same arraignment date shall be counted as one prior convic-

310 tion, based on the most serious offense. Multiple convictions with 311 the same arraignment date may each be counted separately for 312 purposes of criminal history placement on the sentencing guide-
313 lines grid where each such conviction is not part of the same crim-
314 inal conduct. Multiple convictions with different arraignment
315 dates may be counted as a single conviction for purposes of crim-316 inal history placement on the sentencing guidelines grid where 317 each such conviction was part of the same criminal conduct.

318 (c) Juvenile record. Adjudications of delinquency for offenses 319 classified in offense seriousness levels five through nine on the 320 master crime list shall be considered as convictions of the offenses
321 involved and counted for purposes of criminal history. Adjudica-322 tions of delinquency for offenses classified below level five shall 323 not be counted for purposes of criminal history, but the existence
324 of such adjudications may be considered as an aggravating factor 325 for departure from the sentencing guidelines range.

326 (d) Federal and out-of-state criminal records. Prior convictions in 327 federal and other jurisdictions shall be counted for criminal history 328 purposes. The offense of prior conviction shall be assigned to the 329 same offense seriousness level as the Massachusetts offense in the 330 master crime list with the same or substantially the same elements.

331 (e) Prior convictions for staircased offenses. Where the prior 332 conviction is a staircased offense and the offense seriousness level 333 of the staircased offense is not apparent from the criminal record, 334 there is a rebuttable presumption that the prior conviction is in the 335 lowest staircased level for that offense in the master crime list.

336 (f) Determination of criminal history. The judge shall decide 337 any material contested issues relating to criminal history.

338 Section 7. Sentencing Pursuant to the Sentencing Guidelines 339 Grid. Sentencing pursuant to the sentencing guidelines grid shall 340 be based on the offense or offenses of conviction and the criminal 341 history of the defendant. The offense seriousness level for each 342 offense of conviction shall be determined from the master crime
343 list. The appropriate level of staircased offenses shall be deter-344 mined by taking into account the relevant staircasing factors set 345 forth herein. The number and types of prior convictions shall be 346 determined in accordance with section 5 of this chapter to deter-347 mine the appropriate criminal history group for the offender. The 348 sentencing guidelines range shall be determined by identifying

349 that grid cell where the seriousness level of the governing offense 350 on the vertical axis intersects with the classification of the crim-351 inal history group on the horizontal axis.

352 (a) Sentencing within the guideline range. The sentencing judge 353 may impose a sentence to incarceration within the sentencing 354 guidelines range by imposing a maximum sentence from within 355 the guideline range of the appropriate grid cell. Unless otherwise 356 noted herein, the minimum sentence will always be two-thirds of 357 the maximum sentence and will establish the initial parole eligi-
358 bility date. The sentencing judge shall state both the maximum 359 sentence and the parole eligibility date at the time of sentencing.
360 This applies to all sentences of incarceration of two months or 361 longer to houses of correction and all sentences to the state prison.
362 Where the maximum sentence of incarceration to a house of cor-
363 rection is less than two months, the minimum sentence need not 364 be two-thirds of the maximum sentence. Where the maximum sen-
365 tence is selected from the guideline range in the applicable grid 366 cell, the sentence will be within the guidelines and no written 367 explanation is necessary.

368 (b) Departing from the guidelines range. The sentencing judge
369 may impose a sentence below or above the sentencing guidelines 370 range by setting forth in writing reasons for departing from that 371 range on a sentencing statement, consistent with the provisions of 372 section 3(h) of chapter 211E. Any departure shall be based on a 373 finding that one or more mitigating or aggravating circumstances
374 exist as provided in this chapter. In imposing a sentence of incar-375 ceration that departs from the sentencing guidelines range, the 376 minimum sentence shall be two-thirds of the maximum sentence.
377 A sentence that departs below the guidelines range may include a 378 sentence to any lesser term of incarceration or any intermediate 379 sanction.

380 (1) Mitigating and aggravating circumstances. The following 381 exclusive mitigating and aggravating circumstances may guide 382 departures from the sentencing guidelines range. The presence of 383 any such circumstance may warrant departure from the sentencing 384 guidelines range in the discretion of the sentencing judge. In 385 determining mitigation or aggravation, the judge may consider 386 any evidence received during the proceedings; any victim impact 387 statement; any presentence report, when the judge requests one; 388 and, any other information that the judge deems credible.

389     (A) Mitigating circumstances. The exclusive list of mitigating 390     circumstances includes the following:—

391       1. The defendant was a minor participant in the criminal con-392       duct.

393       2. The defendant was suffering from a mental or physical con-394       dition that significantly reduced the culpability of the defendant 395       for the offense.

396       3. The victim was an initiator, aggressor, or provoker of the 397       offense.

398       4. The sentence was imposed in accordance with a jointly 399       agreed recommendation.

400       5. The age of the defendant at the time of the offense.

401       6. The defendant verifies current involvement in, or successful 402       completion of, a substance abuse or other treatment program that 403       began after the date of the offense.

404     (B) Aggravating circumstances. The exclusive list of aggra-405     vating circumstances includes the following:—

406       1. The victim was especially vulnerable due to age or physical 407       or mental disability.

408       2. The victim was treated with particular cruelty.

409       3. The defendant used position or status to facilitate commis-410       sion of the offense, such as a position of trust, confidence or fidu-411       ciary relationship.

412       4. The defendant was a leader in the commission of an offense 413       involving two or more criminal actors.

414       5. The defendant committed the offense while on probation, on 415       parole, or during escape.

416       6. The defendant has committed repeated offenses against the 417       same victim.

418       The sentencing judge shall not be required to conduct an evi-419       dentiary hearing in determining aggravating or mitigating factors.

420     (c) Concurrent or consecutive sentencing. When a defendant is 421     convicted of multiple offenses arising out of the same criminal 422     conduct, the judge may impose concurrent or consecutive sen-423     tences, subject to the following provisions. The judge shall 424     impose a consecutive sentence when the imposition of a consecu-425     tive sentence is required by the terms of the statute pertaining to a 426     particular offense. The judge may impose concurrent or consecu-427     tive sentences of incarceration in the house of correction for each

428 offense where such incarceration is permitted by law. The judge 429 may impose concurrent or consecutive sentences of incarceration 430 in the state prison for each offense where such incarceration is 431 permitted by law, subject to the following limitation. The judge 432 may impose consecutive sentences to the state prison by selecting 433 a sentence from the guidelines range in the applicable grid cell for 434 each offense to be sentenced consecutively. The total of such con-435 secutive sentences may be combined up to twice the upper limit of 436 the sentencing guidelines range in the grid cell of the governing 437 offense. Where the total of the combined sentences exceeds twice 438 that upper limit, it shall be considered a departure from the guide-439 lines and the judge is required to provide written reasons. The 440 existence of multiple victims is recognized as an aggravating cir-441 cumstance which may justify such a departure.

442 Any sentence imposed as concurrent or consecutive to a gov-443 erning offense may be for a period of incarceration that is less than 444 the lower limit of the sentencing guidelines range contained in the 445 applicable grid cell or for any level of intermediate sanction, 446 without constituting a departure from the sentencing guidelines.

447 When a defendant is convicted of multiple offenses which do 448 not arise out of the same criminal conduct or when a defendant at 449 the time of sentencing is currently serving a sentence for another 450 criminal offense, the judge may impose either a concurrent or con-451 secutive sentence from within the sentencing guidelines range of 452 the applicable grid cell without the limitation on consecutive sen-453 tences to the state prison set forth in this section.

454 Section 8. Sentencing for Offenses with Mandatory Minimum
455 Terms. Sentencing guidelines for offenses with mandatory min-
456 imum terms are as follows:—

457 (a) Firearms offenses. No departures below the mandatory min-
458 imum sentences for firearms offenses in violation of sections 459 10(a), 10(c), 10(d), or 10E of chapter 269 are permitted. These 460 enumerated mandatory firearms offenses are not integrated into 461 the guidelines grid. The sentencing guidelines for these mandatory 462 firearms offenses are the mandatory sentencing provisions of the 463 existing statutes. The minimum term of incarceration shall be no 464 less than the mandatory minimum sentence provided in the 465 statutes enumerated in this paragraph. The sentencing judge is 466 required to impose a minimum and a maximum sentence, but the

467 minimum sentence need not be two-thirds of the maximum. For 468 purposes of determining the criminal history group for a defen-
469 dant with prior mandatory firearms convictions, the master crime 470 list provides the offense seriousness level corresponding to the 471 sentencing guidelines grid for each firearms offense with a 472 mandatory minimum sentence.

473 (b) Operating under the influence offenses. For purposes of this 474 chapter, operating under the influence offenses refer to offenses
475 enumerated in the second paragraph of section 23 of chapter 90, 476 section 24(1)(a)(1) of chapter 90, and section 8(a)(1)(A) of chapter 477 90B. No departures below any mandatory minimum sentences for 478 operating under the influence offenses are permitted. These oper-
479 ating under the influence offenses are not integrated into the guide-480 lines grid. The sentencing guidelines for these operating under the 481 influence offenses are the mandatory sentencing provisions of the 482 existing statutes. The minimum term of incarceration shall be no 483 less than any mandatory minimum sentence provided in the 484 statutes enumerated in this paragraph. The sentencing judge is 485 required to impose a minimum and a maximum sentence, but the 486 minimum sentence need not be two-thirds of the maximum.

487 For purposes of determining the criminal history group for a 488 defendant with prior convictions for operating under the influence 489 offenses, the master crime list provides the offense seriousness 490 level for each operating under the influence offense.

491 Nothing in this section shall be found to prohibit a sentence
492 pursuant to section 24(1)(a)(4) of chapter 90 or section 8(a)(3)(A) 493 of chapter 90B.

494 (c) Offenses in violation of the controlled substances act.
495 (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the case of an 496 offense under sections 32(a), 32A(c), 32E(a)(2), 32E(a)(3), 497 32E(b)(1), 32E(b)(2), 32E(c)(1), 32E(c)(2), and 32J of chapter
498 94C, the court may impose a sentence pursuant to the sentencing 499 guidelines without regard to any mandatory minimum sentence 500 that might otherwise apply, if the court finds at sentencing that the 501 following mitigating circumstances apply. The following is the 502 exclusive list of mitigating conditions:

503 1. The criminal history of the defendant falls in criminal history 504 group A or B in the sentencing guidelines grid;

505     2. The defendant has no prior drug distribution and trafficking 506 convictions;

507     3. The defendant did not use violence or credible threats of vio-508 lence or possess a firearm or other dangerous weapon (or induce 509 another participant to do so) in connection with the offense;

510     4. The offense did not result in the death or serious bodily 511 injury to any person;

512     5. The defendant was a minor participant in the criminal con-513 duct; and

514     6. The defendant is not charged with an offense involving 515 minors;

516     7. Not later than the time of the sentencing hearing, the defen-517 dant has truthfully provided to the prosecution all information and 518 evidence the defendant has concerning the offense or offenses that 519 were part of the same course of conduct or of a common scheme
520 or plan, but the fact that the defendant has no relevant or useful 521 other information to provide or that the prosecution is already 522 aware of the information shall not preclude a determination by the 523 court that the defendant has complied with this requirement.

524     In addition to the above conditions, the burden is on the defen-525 dant to prove the mitigating factors by clear and convincing evi-526 dence. The commonwealth must be provided notice, the 527 opportunity to be heard, and the right to appeal. The departure 528 hearing will be conducted after conviction has been entered, after 529 trial or a plea.

530     The judge may not depart below the sentencing guidelines after 531 he has departed from the mandatory minimum scheme. If the 532 appropriate grid box contains a sentencing option of incarceration 533 or intermediate sanctions, the court must impose incarceration.
534 The statute will not apply to any crime committed before the date 535 that the guidelines become effective.

536     Where the judge departs below the mandatory minimum sen-
537 tence and imposes an incarceration sentence within the guidelines 538 range, the minimum sentence shall be two-thirds of the maximum 539 sentence; the defendant shall be eligible for parole at the expira-540 tion of the minimum sentence; and, the defendant shall be eligible 541 for earned good time, work release, and other pre-release pro-
542 grams deemed appropriate by the correctional authority with cus-
543 tody responsibility, notwithstanding the provisions of G.L. c. 94C
544 §32H.

545     (d) Other offenses with mandatory minimum terms. No depart-546     tures below any mandatory minimum sentence provided for in 547     these enumerated sections are permitted. As set forth in the master 548     crime list, violations of section 24G(a) of chapter 90, 549     section 8B(1) of chapter 90B, section 4B of chapter 272, and 550     section 6 of chapter 272 are level six offenses; violations of 551     section 43(b) of chapter 265, section 43(c) of chapter 265, and 552     section 4A of chapter 272 are level five offenses; violations of 553     section 4A of chapter 272, section 24L(1) of chapter 90,
554     section 8A(1) of chapter 90B, section 27A of chapter 266, section 555     28(a) of chapter 266, section 39 of chapter 268, and section 7 of 556     chapter 272 are level four offenses.

557     For these offenses the minimum sentence shall be two-thirds of 558     the maximum sentence selected from within the applicable guide-559     lines range, provided that all sentences require a minimum term of 560     incarceration equal to or greater in length than the mandatory min-561     imum sentence. It shall not constitute a departure for a judge to 562     impose a sentence exceeding the guidelines range of the applicable 563     grid cell in order to comply with the requirement that the minimum 564     term of incarceration must be equal to or greater in length than the 565     mandatory minimum sentence and the requirement that the min-566     imum sentence shall be two-thirds of the maximum sentence.

567     The defendant shall be eligible for parole at the expiration of the 568     minimum sentence. The defendant shall not be eligible for earned 569     good time, work release, and other pre-release programs deemed 570     appropriate by the correctional authority with custody responsibility, 571     until the defendant has served the mandatory minimum sentence.

572     (e) Offenses with statutory minimum sentences. For those 573     offenses with a statutory minimum sentence, it shall not be con-574     sidered a departure for the judge to impose a sentence within the 575     sentencing guidelines range, even though the sentence may be 576     below the statutory minimum sentence. Where the statutory min-
577     imum sentence exceeds the sentencing guidelines range, the impo-578     sition of the statutory minimum sentence shall not constitute a 579     departure from the sentencing guidelines.

580     Section 9. The Statutory Maximum Term. Notwithstanding 581     section 3(c) of chapter 211E, a judge may not impose any sen-582     tence which exceeds the statutory maximum term set forth in the 583     statute that establishes the penalty for the particular offense.

584     Section 10. District and Municipal Court Jurisdiction. When a 585     district or municipal court judge is imposing a sentence and the 586     sentencing guidelines range in the applicable grid cell exceeds the 587     district and municipal court sentencing jurisdiction of two and 588     one-half years, the sentencing guidelines range shall be an incar-589     ceration zone range of 20 to 30 months and it shall not constitute a 590     departure from the sentencing guidelines for a district or munic-591     ipal court judge to impose a sentence of incarceration from within 592     the 20 to 30 month sentencing guidelines range.

593     Section 11. Sentencing to Intermediate Sanctions. Guidelines
594     for sentencing to intermediate sanctions, as defined in the General
595     Laws chapter 211F section 1, are integrated into the sentencing 596     guidelines grid in the discretionary zone or the intermediate sanc-597     tions zone as described in section 2 of this chapter.

598     There are four levels of intermediate sanctions consistent with 599     the severity of the restrictions on personal liberty and the intensity
600     of supervision. The four levels of intermediate sanctions are inte-601     grated as follows:—

602       (1) LEVEL 1, financial accountability, which represents the 603     level of restriction and accountability that is typically associated 604     with administrative probation. It is primarily designed to monitor 605     the timely payment of restitution, fines, victim/witness fees, and 606     the like, by the offender.

607       (2) LEVEL 2, standard probation supervision, under which the 608     offender is subject to weekly accountability of his whereabouts.
609     This represents the level of restriction and accountability that is 610     typically associated with standard probation supervision.

611       (3) LEVEL 3, daily accountability, under which the offender is 612     subject to daily accountability of his whereabouts. Level 3 sanc-613     tions may include, but are not limited to, electronic monitoring, 614     daily reporting, reporting on demand, special curfew supervision, 615     and/or intensive probation supervision. This represents the level 616     of restriction and accountability that falls in between 24-hour 617     restriction and standard probation.

618       (4) LEVEL 4, 24-hour restriction, under which the defendant is 619     subject to 24 hour restriction and accountability of his where-620     abouts. Level 4 sanctions may include, but are not limited to, a 621     placement in a halfway house, inpatient alcohol and drug treat-622     ment facility, home confinement, electronic monitoring and/or

623 daily reporting. This represents the maximum level or restriction 624 and accountability short of incarceration.

625 A sentence to an intermediate sanction shall be imposed as a con-
626 dition of probation, consistent with the provisions of Chapter 211F 627 section 3 (c) of the General Laws. Conditions of probation, 628 including, but not limited to, random drug and alcohol testing, sub-629 stance abuse counseling, financial restitution and the payment of 630 fines are available at every level. The length of the probation period 631 that may be imposed upon conviction shall be consistent with the 632 provisions of Chapter 276 section 87. The sentencing judge shall 633 specify the intermediate sanction level. The supervising probation 634 officer has the discretion to move a probation down in level or levels 635 in appropriate circumstances, without judicial consultation, consis-636 tent with any special conditions or duration of probation specified by 637 the judge. A reduction in the intermediate sanction level by a proba-638 tion officer shall not go below the guideline levels set forth in the 639 grid cell in which the offender was sentenced.

640 Section 12. Revocation of Probation. The sentencing guidelines
641 do not apply to a probation revocation hearing. In imposing a sen-
642 tence at a probation revocation hearing, the judge has the discre-643 tion to impose any sentence up to the statutory maximum. When 644 imposing a sentence of incarceration, the judge shall impose both 645 a minimum sentence and a maximum sentence and the minimum 646 sentence must be two-thirds of the maximum sentence.

647 Section 13. Split Sentences. A sentence to a house of correction 648 shall not be suspended in whole, but a sentence to a house of cor-649 rection may be suspended in part to permit the imposition of a 650 split sentence. In imposing a split sentence, a judge shall impose a 651 minimum and a maximum term as provided by section 6(a) of this 652 chapter and shall specify the period of incarceration to be served 653 in the house of correction. The judge shall also specify the term of 654 probation to be served subsequent to the period of incarceration.

655 Section 14. Financial Sanctions. When appropriate, a judge 656 shall order fines or restitution or both as part of any sentence.
657 Restitution to the victim shall be a priority of the judge at the time 658 of sentencing, regardless of whether the offender is incarcerated.

659 Section 15. Imposing a Sentence. In sentencing a defendant
660 after trial or after acceptance of a guilty plea pursuant to either 661 Rule 12 of the Rules of Criminal Procedure or Rule 4(c) of the

662 District/Municipal Court Rules of Criminal Procedure, the court
663 shall comply with the provisions of Rule 28 of the Massachusetts 664 Rules of Criminal Procedure. The judge shall allow both parties to 665 be heard at sentencing on all sentencing issues. In determining the 666 sentence, the judge may rely on any evidence received during the 667 proceedings; any victim impact statement; any presentence report, 668 when the judge requests one; and, any other information the judge 669 deems credible. A sentencing statement shall be completed in 670 accordance with section 3(h) of chapter 211E for each defendant
671 being sentenced. The sentencing judge shall sign the completed
672 sentencing statement and a copy shall be submitted to the Sen-673 tencing Commission as provided in section 3(h) of chapter 211E.

674 Section 16. Right of Appeal. The defendant or the common-675 wealth may appeal a sentence imposed pursuant to sentencing 676 guidelines, to the extent an appeal is permitted in accordance with 677 the provisions of section 4 of chapter 211E.

1 SECTION 2. Severability. Where any provision of this chapter 2 or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall, for 3 any reason, be held invalid, the remainder of this chapter or the 4 application of such provision to persons or circumstances other
5 than those as to which it is held invalid shall not be affected 6 thereby.

1 SECTION 3. Split Sentences. Section 3(a)(2) of chapter 211E
2 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after the 3 phrase, “Said sentence shall not be suspended in whole or in part,” 4 the following: “except for the imposition of split sentences to the 5 house of correction pursuant to chapter 211G.”

1 SECTION 4. Section 3(e) of chapter 211E of the General Laws
2 is hereby amended by inserting after the phrase “impose a sen-
3 tence below any mandatory minimum term prescribed by statute,” 4 the following: “only to the extent provided by chapter 211G.”

1 SECTION 5. Section 4 of chapter 211E, as appearing in the 2 2000 Official Edition of the General Laws, is hereby amended in 3 lines four to five and lines thirteen to fourteen by striking out the 4 words “application of the sentencing guidelines” and inserting in 5 place thereof “placement within the sentencing grid”.

1     SECTION 6. Sections 32A(d), 32E(a)(2), 32E(a)(3), 32E(b)(1), 2 32E(b)(2), 32E(c)(1), 32E(c)(2), 32F(b), and 32J of chapter 94C,
3 as appearing in the 2000 Official Edition of the General Laws, are 4 hereby amended by adding after the last sentence in each section 5 the following:—

6     In the case of mitigating circumstances as stated under c. 211G, 7 section 8(c), this offense shall be integrated into the sentencing 8 guidelines grid. The penalty imposed shall be from within the 9 guidelines range, with the minimum sentence representing two-10 thirds of the maximum sentence. There shall be no further depar-11 tures from the sentencing guidelines range.

1     SECTION 7. Chapter 211E is hereby amended by adding the 2 following new section 5:—

3     Section 5. Post-incarceration Supervision. For all sentences to 4 incarceration for a period of twelve months or more there shall be 5 imposed a period of post-incarceration supervision. The period of 6 post-incarceration supervision shall be imposed as follows: a 7 period of six months for a sentence with a maximum term of 8 incarceration greater than or equal to twelve months but less than 9 thirty months; a period of twelve months for a sentence with a 10 maximum term of incarceration greater than or equal to thirty 11 months but less than sixty months; and a period of twenty-four 12 months for a sentence with a maximum term of incarceration
13 greater than or equal to sixty months. During the period of post-14 incarceration supervision, the prisoner shall be subject to the 15 supervision of the Parole Board under such terms and conditions
16 as established by the Board. The post-incarceration supervision 17 period shall be deemed completed if the prisoner completes the 18 sentence to incarceration while on parole, if the prisoner is 19 granted a certificate of termination of sentence pursuant to section 20 130A of chapter 127, if the prisoner is subject upon release from 21 custody to lifetime parole pursuant to section 133C of chapter 22 127, or if upon completion of the sentence the prisoner is immedi-23 ately committed to a sentence of incarceration, to the custody of 24 any other state or federal authority, or to the custody of immigra-25 tion authorities. The post-incarceration supervision shall be stayed 26 for any period the prisoner is in custody pursuant to any order of 27 custody under chapter 123A. The post-incarceration supervision

28 period shall be deemed completed upon commitment pursuant to 29 section 14 of chapter 123A. In all other circumstances, the period 30 of post-incarceration supervision shall commence upon discharge 31 from the sentence. During the period of post-incarceration super-32 vision, the prisoner shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the 33 parole board in accordance with section 130 of chapter 127. The 34 prisoner may be supervised in another jurisdiction in accordance 35 with sections 151A through 151L of chapter 127 and shall be con-
36 sidered on parole for the purposes of supervision. By a majority 37 vote of a panel of the parole board after a hearing and for good 38 cause, the parole board may terminate the period of post-incarcer-
39 ation supervision at any time before completion. An individual 40 who violates a condition of post-incarceration supervision shall be 41 subject to the provisions of section 149 of chapter 127. Upon a 42 first violation, the prisoner may be incarcerated for a period no 43 greater than 2 months or the maximum remaining period of post-44 incarceration supervision, whichever is less, if such violation does 45 not otherwise constitute a criminal offense. Upon a second viola-46 tion, the prisoner may be incarcerated for a period no greater than 47 6 months or the maximum remaining period of post-incarceration 48 supervision, whichever is less, if such violation does not other-49 wise constitute a criminal offense. Upon a third or subsequent vio-
50 lation, the prisoner may be incarcerated for a period no greater 51 than 12 months or the maximum remaining period of post-incar-
52 ceration supervision, whichever is less, if such violation does not 53 otherwise constitute a criminal offense. If such violation consti-54 tutes a criminal offense, said period of incarceration shall be 55 served on and after any sentence received for commission of the 56 new offense.

1 SECTION 8. Section 130 of chapter 127, as appearing in the 2 2000 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the first 3 sentence and inserting the following:— No prisoner shall be 4 granted a parole permit merely as a reward for good conduct but 5 only if the parole board is of the opinion that there is a reasonable 6 probability that, if such prisoner is released, in light of appropriate 7 conditions and community supervision, he will live and remain at 8 liberty without violating the law and that his release is compatible 9 with the welfare of society. In making this determination, the 10 board shall consider whether, during the period of incarceration, 11 the prisoner has achieved lower levels of security, participated in 12 available work opportunities and education or treatment programs, 13 and demonstrated good behavior. The board shall also consider 14 whether risk reduction programs made available through collabora-

15 ration with criminal justice agencies would minimize the proba-16 bility of the prisoner re-offending once released.

1     SECTION 9. Section 136 of chapter 127 is hereby amended by 2 adding the following at the end of the last sentence:— The parole
3 board shall have the option to (1) grant parole, subject to the con-
4 ditions or limitations as deemed appropriate, (2) deny parole, sub-5 ject to reconsideration at a specified date with recommendations 6 for interim program participation or treatment or (3) deny parole.

1     SECTION 10. Effective Date. The provisions of this chapter
2 shall take effect on _____, 2001 and the sentencing 3 guidelines and other related provisions contained herein shall 4 apply to all felonies and misdemeanors committed on or after that 5 date. All offenses committed prior to _____, 2001, shall 6 be governed by the laws, including but not limited to those on 7 sentencing, parole, and probation, in effect at the time the offense 8 is committed. Any amendments to the sentencing guidelines shall 9 apply to all offenses committed on or after the effective date of 10 the amendment.
